

Gary Nusca, CCIM, CIPS is the founder of The Market ICI World Commercial and Residential Real Estate Network (since 1994) located in Toronto, Ontario, a society of real estate brokers and salespeople networking exclusive real estate opportunities, advertising listings, on mobile devices and computers and reaching people in 138 countries.

It is brokers global Internet classified ad service for the commercial and residential real estate industry. It handles information similar to classified ads in a newspaper with information such as CCIM and CIPS and other professionals network in marketing sessions.

A forty year veteran in real estate as a broker, Gary has built this service that has over $40 Billion of commercial real estate, over $11 Trillion of buyers Wants, over 30,000 Haves and Wants placed by real estate brokers and salespeople and the public, spanning our industry . . . world wide. He has produced many seminars and shows for the commercial real estate industry and also does seminars and speaking engagements.

He is Past President of the Central Canada CCIM Chapter and has served in many capacities. He is Past President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Past Chairman of Hamilton's 125th Anniversary Committee and has served on MLS committees.

He has served as a World Conference Chairman for the CCIM International Commercial Real Estate Conference and has organized and help run Have and Want marketing sessions where over $200,000,000 worth of real estate has been presented over a one day session, nationally, internationally and locally.

He specializes in helping brokers and salespeople serve the public to help them buy and sell real estate utilizing the Internet to network commercial and residential real estate Have and Want information to connect with others to do business.

He is here today to help you connect with others to do business in commercial and residential real estate and make money.